"Picayune" Butler in New Or cans. General Butler's manner of governing the rebellious city of New Orleans is so original as well as successful, as to excite the most unlimited satisfaction in all parts of the country. The expedition to, and capture of New Orleans, with the course pursued by Gen. Butler in the administration of governmental affairs in his department, is so full of real romance as well as reality, that it may very properly be called the epic of the Great Rebellion. The correspondent of the New York Herald, to whom we have been indebted for most of the graphic details of the, expedition continues his lefters, from the last one of which we copy the following extracts.

GENERAL BUTLER AND THE NEWSPAPERS. On the 16th General Butler suppresed COOKING AND HEATING STOVES, the New Orleans Bee, and took possession of the Delta offi-e, by virtue of the following "special order:"

" 1st. The New Orleans Bee newspaper having published an elaborate though covert argument in layer of the cotton-burning mob, is hereby suppressed. No publication will issue from that office until further orders.

" 2d. The New Orleans Delta newspaper having, in an article of to-day's issue, discussed the cutton question in a manner which violates the terms of the proclamation of 1st of May instant from these headquarters, the effice of that paper will be taken possession of and its business conducted under direction of the United States authorities.

" Mrjor-General Butlea. " GEO. C. STRONG, A. A. General."

THE USE OF CONFEDERATE NOTES FORIDDEN On the same day, the following order, forbidding the use of Confederate notes, was issued by Gen. Biftler:

" lat. It is hereby ordered that neither hand, and we will attend to selling at anction rate in any pa t of the city or co city.

H. Nelson will pay particular attent on to collecting debts or claims, will act as agent for renting house and collecting rents, and any and all bust this Department; and all sales or transfers this Department; and all sales or transfers of property made on or sfier that day, in consideration of such notes or bile, directly or indirectly, will be invalid, and the property confiscated to the United States—one-sale by SHAUPE & CO.

" Major-General BUTLER " GEORGE C. STRONG, A. A. G., Chief of Steff." THE OBSERVANCE OF JEFF. DAVIS' PAST-DAY PUBLIDDEN.

General Butler also issued the following order, probibiting the observance of Jen-Davis' fast-day :

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T OF THE GULF, ? NEW ORLEANS, May 13. It having come to the knowledge of the Commanding General that Friday next is proposed to be observed as a day of fasting and prayer, in obedience to some supposed proclamation of one Jefferson Davis, in the several churches of this city, it is ordered that no such observance be had. Churches and religious bouses are to be kept open as in times of prolound peace, but no religious exercises are to be had upon the supposed authority above men-

By command of Maj. Gen. BUTLER. Geo. C. Strong A. A. G. THE BRITISH CONSUL EXERCISED.

Mr. George Coppell, the British Copsul, was very indignant because Gen. Butler ordered to leave the city, within twenty-four bours, certain members of the British Guard, attached to the disbanded European Brigade, who held a meeting at which they voted to send their arms and uniforms to Beauregard's srmy. Three of these seces-FINE HATS, eion sympathizers were arrested for over-Of any description made to order on short notice, staying the time allowed for their departure; hence the correspondence. The Consul, in his letter of the 8th, owns that the conduct of his countrymen was not in accordance with the duties of neutrals, but he solemnly protests against the order for their departure as an infringement on the rights of British subjects residing in the United States, and attempts an apology for their MALN STREET. course. The General, in reply, blantly begins: "I have your communication of May This action is an insult as well to the

had received. BUTLER'S LAST Y:EW OF THE CONTRABAND - QUESTION SECOND

The following instructions to Brigadier General Phelps, commanding at Carrolton, contain a comprehensive expression of Gen. Butler's views as to the disposal of fugitive glaves who come within the lines of our HEADQUARTERS, DEP'T OF THE GULF, )

New Oblians, May 9, 1862
Gen. Pheles—Mr. J. B. G. Armond says that a boy by the name of Irwin Pardon, whose services he claims, has come within your lines. The course which I have adopted in such cases is this: If I have any so many national and fitting occasions. use for the services of such a boy I employ him without any scruple; if I have not, I do not harbor him, as my subsistence like any other vagrant about the camp? Respectfully,
B. F. BUTLER, Mej. Gen. Com.

THE ORDER ABOUT THE WOMEN-CURIOUS CONDUCT OF THE MAYOR.

In one of the earlier letters, the writer says of the conduct of the women: "The conduct of the women (I mean sense by the sex. Intrenching themselves behind the immunities which the gallantry of our countrymen has ever accorded them, they insult and sneer at our officers and men co. tinually, and commit acrs which would insure six months' hard labor at the forts to a man guilty of like actions."

Gen. Butler soon after issued his order—already published in the Gezette—ordering women iosalting our soldiers, to be treated as "prostitutes p ying their avocation."—
By this he intended that, as by a city ordinance, prostitutes should be sent to the caisaboose, other disorderly women should be subjected to a like punishment. The order was sent to the True Delta, which published it with a very bad grace. The Mayor as "prostitutes plying their avocation." --By this he intended that, as by a city ordied it with a very bad grace. The Mayor was also very angry, and addressed a letter to Gen. Butler, in which he adds: "Your generl order is of a character so extraordinary, that I cannot suffer it to be promulgated without protesting against the threat gated without protesting against the threat it contains, which has already aroused the passions of our people, and must exasperate them to a degree beyond a control." then west on to say that its phraseology was such that officers and men could put the worst construction on it, that he dil n tanticipate a war on women and children, &c. To this Gen. Butler reptied:

HEADQUARTERS, DEP'T OF THE GULF, ? NEW ORLEANS, May 16. "John T. Monroe, late Mayor of the City suspended from the exercise of any official functions, and committed to Fort Jackson until further orders.

B. F. Buyler.

"Mejor Gen. Commanding. This order brought the Mayor to headquarters in a harry. He apologized, and after a severe lecture the General let him off, on his written statement that his communication having been sent under a mistake of facts and improperly worded he withdrew it. Not long after he repented of his apology, and called at headquarters for the purpose of withdrawing it, and of again asking a modification of the order. The General told him unequivocally that he had nothing to modify, that he would not withdraw the order if he could, and could not if he would; but, at his request, would allow him to publish the offensive letter and spology, and that the order applied only to those women who had insulted, by word, look, or gestare, the officers and soldiers of the United States army. The Mayor left, but afterward sent another letter, the counterpart of the first; and on the morning of the 19th, in company with several of his friends, including Judge Kennedy, John McClellan, Chief of Police, and D. G. Duncan, again demanded the right to withdraw his apology. The General, who had in view some treasonable acts of the Mayor, as well as his conduct in regard to the order, told him that he had played with the United States authority long enough, and must now go to Fort ions, were dispatched thither also.

GALLANT EXPLOIT OF AN INDIANIAN.

Col. McMillan, of the 21st Indiana regiment, now stationed at Algiers, made a reot's Family Grocer. The writer says: convoisance into the Attakapas country, which resulted in the capture of a fine steamer, with a very valuable cargo.

Taking eighty men, he went out on the Opelausas Railroad to its terminus. Learnting there that a rebel steamer had just run the blockede at the Grand Dayou Usillon, he immediately started off and made a forced march of thirty miles that night .--Arriving at the Bayou in the morning, he found the steamer quietly anchored, unsuspicious of impending danger. He took possession without meeting any resistance, and set the crew at work for the United States Government. The prize is a very rich one. The vessel is a superior N. York built, low pressure boat, and was formerly OLD AUCTION HOUSE, named the A. J. Whitmore; she is now known as the Fox. She is almost the counterpart of the Hariet Lane. Her cargo A NEW AUCTIONEER consisted of fifteen tons of powder, a large amount of arms and an assortment of desirable merchandise, and is valued at a bundred thousand dollars.
